

Hidden Poverty in Fairfax County

A 21st Century Poverty Perspective

Interested in learning more about how 21st Century Poverty affects your neighbors in Fairfax County? Join Sister Simone Campbell and four local experts for a conversation on the reality of poverty here in Fairfax County. This panel discussion will explore the topics of housing, hunger, immigration, wages, healthcare, and how to get involved!

Please join us for this event hosted by the Northern Virginia NETWORK Advocates Team!

Event Details

When: September 15, 2018 from 10:00-11:30am.

Where: St. Anne's Episcopal Church (1700 Wainwright Drive, Reston, Virginia, 20190)

Cost: Free

Questions? Email Mary Farrell at wmekmf118@gmail.com

Moderator

Sister Simone Campbell,
Executive Director of NETWORK

Panelists

John MacPherson, Executive Director of The Lamb Center

Kerrie Wilson, CEO of Cornerstones

John Golden, Director of Development and Outreach, Food for Others

Terry Angelotti, Executive Director Centreville Immigration Forum